Make-up policy: If there is space, students may attend another class given during the week to make up for one missed class. All classes must be made up within the 8-week session. If at least half of the students miss at least one class during the session, a ninth bonus make-up will be offered that all of the students may attend.

Payment is due in full by the start of the first class.

Please make checks out to Sally Pessin.
